

Mr. ROEMER. If I could reclaim my time, Mr. Speaker, I could want to let the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY] have just one question, and let the gentleman get off to Margaritaville.

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ROEMER. I yield to the gentleman from Mississippi.

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Majority Leader, have a great flight, but when you fly away, think about working on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and I would appreciate that.

Mr. ARMEY. The gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY] has been very generous.

If the gentleman will continue to yield for one quick moment, I think we have a statement here that needs to be clarified. I would like to make it very clear so there is no misunderstanding regarding working on Monday, July 31. It is very clear that we will work, and it will be necessary for us to work on that, but hopefully not on the weekend before.

Mr. FAZIO. I thank the leader for his comments.

THE WORST OF TIMES FOR AMERICA'S WOMEN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentlewoman from Colorado, [Mrs. SCHROEDER] is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the minority leader.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I must say this has been really quite a week. There was some question whether I wanted to stay and do a special order. The more I looked at what happened in this week, I really feel it is very historic and it is very important to take the floor and say to the American people that I hope they are digesting what is transpiring. Right now, if we look at all the things going on between Waco hearings, Whitewater hearings, all the trials on television and Bosnia, I think very few people realize what is transpiring to their rights here.

This week ended with such a fitting end that really says it all. As we know, our Speaker kind of got elected as the prince of angry white men, and I think it is very fitting that he ended up celebrating the end of this week where he is now. We have our Speaker off at the Bohemian Club. Many people may say, "what is the Bohemian Club? Why do we think we heard that name?" We heard it a lot during the prior Republican administration, and then we have not heard it for quite some time. However, the Speaker has put it back into our whole lexicon.

Herbert Hoover once called the Bohemian Club and its annual party the greatest men's club on Earth. The San Diego Union described it the following way:

The Bohemian Club is known for its raucous campouts in the grove. Their woods north of San Francisco are where powerful politicians, executives, and many others, partially clad or dressed in drag, meet each year for 2 weeks of carousing and networking. The grove gatherings are known for raunchy skits, speechmaking, sing-along, gambling, open urination on trees, and other targets.
